	and asked i	f the Department of	State's	legislative proposal of 7 February 1973 concer	ning funding should	be ado	pted in the CIA Retirement Act amendment	amendments we were currently proposing to OMB for clearance prior to transmittal	transmittal to the Congress. Schreiber said there was no guarantee that State's proposal in this respect would be acceptable to all parties concerned and recommended we not change our proposal at this time. Concerning Chairman Ichord's request on the House Internal Security Committee's report on the Federal Civilian Employee Loyalty Program (see Journal of 7 February 1973), Schreiber said that there was no need to clear our views with OMB and suggested that any further coordination we might desire would involve contacting Tony Mondello, General Counsel, Civil Service Commission. Subsequently, Mr. Warner, OGC, and I agreed
